The Review:

I was sent three of their juices for review:

- Strawberry Banana Kiwi
- Orange Tangerine Pineapple
- Pomegranate Blueberry Goji

I have to say I was super impressed with these juices. I loved the bright vibrant colors and design of the bottles.

First I tried out the Strawberry Banana Kiwi.

This smelled good. Very fruity and fresh. It tasted even better. You could slightly taste the vegetable in it, but the naturally sweet flavor of the Strawberry and Banana really made it taste so much better. The Kiwi gave it a nice sweet tangy flavor.

My most favorite of these three is the Orange Tangerine Pineapple. It smelled great. this one was more sweeter than the Strawberry Banana Kiwi. It tasted more of Pineapple juice with hints of Orange and Citrus flavors. It was naturally sweet and full of tasty fruity flavor.

I also really enjoyed the Pomegranate Blueberry Goji.

It was really sweet. It tasted might I say "Berry-Licious". It had that slight vegetable juice flavor but it was tasty and delicious at the same time. There were hints of sweet juicy blueberries and Goji Berries. It tasted a million times better than V8.

I felt at ease drinking these juices knowing they weren't full of fake sugars, and most importantly no preservatives. I also thought the calories were great! only 60 per 8 oz. glass! The carbs were 12-13 per 8 oz. glass. I thought that was okay too since they were "healthy" carbs :) My most favorite fact about these juices was that they had 3 Full Servings of Fruit and Veggies in ever serving! Very important to me.

These juices were the best that I have ever tasted. After drinking them for a few days I noticed I felt more energized too! My kids even enjoyed drinking these! Goodbye sugary juices, Hello FaVe!

Overall I highly recommend FaVe Juice to anyone! I give them a Bajillion stars for making such healthy juices that are oh so tasty!
